

December 2005

I am delighted to bring to your attention the last news for 2005 from the Communication Arena.

Editor's Focus

Tim Sellnow, incoming editor for 2006 of Journal of Applied Communication Research, discusses the forthcoming special issue on the Atlantic Hurricane Season. Due to be published next year, the journal is currently calling for papers for this issue.

As usual, the focus is accompanied by specially selected sample articles which are available to view for a limited period through the Arena. We are also offering a 25% discount on new personal subscriptions to Journal of Applied Communication Research.

Special Introductory Offer

New to Routledge for 2006 is the Journal of Intercultural Communication Research and we are offering two options for new personal subscribers from Volume 35. Choose either a 20% discount on the price of the personal subscription or receive 6 months free online access to the journal. For further information or to subscribe visit the Arena.

We'll be back in the New Year with more news, information and offers from the Communication Arena.

Kind regards
