

October 2005

I am delighted to bring to your attention October's news from the Communication Arena.

Editor's Focus

The Editor's Focus this month concentrates on Communication Education, a Journal of the National Communication Association. From 2006 Communication Education has a new Editor, Patricia Kearney from California State University, Long Beach, USA. Visit the Editor's Focus to see her new editorial policy.

Sample Articles and Special Offers

Selected sample articles from Communication Education are available to view through the Arena for a limited period and we are offering a 20% discount on a new personal subscription. There are also special discount offers on Western Journal of Communication and Communication Reports.

Debut of European Communication Conference

The First European Communication Conference takes place this year in Amsterdam from 24-26 November. The theme is 'Fifty Years of Communication Research in Europe: Past and Future' and communication scholars from all disciplines are invited to attend and participate. Visit the Arena for further information on the conference.

Online Submission to 6 National Communication Association Journals

Communication Education, Journal of Applied Communication Research and Communication and Critical/Cultural Studies all now accept online submissions through Manuscript Central. These join Quarterly Journal of Speech, Communication Monographs and Critical Studies in Media Communication in providing this service.

Please visit the following links to submit online to these NCA journals Communication and Critical/Cultural Studies
