

February 2006

Welcome to February's news from the Communication Arena.

Editor's Focus

This month Scott C. Ratzan, founding editor of Journal of Health Communication: International Perspectives discusses how far the journal has come as it celebrates its first decade with a special issue examining past contributions and future directions. Specially selected sample articles from the journal are available to view for a limited period through the Arena.

2006 CCCC Annual Convention

Now in its 57th year, the CCCC Annual Convention theme is "Composition in the Center Spaces: Building Community, Culture, Coalitions". This year's convention is being held in Chicago, USA, and Routledge Books and Journals will be present so pay us a visit at the exhibition stand. Further details are available from the Arena.

Tabloid Britain

Routledge Books is also offering you the opportunity to request your inspection copy of Tabloid Britain; an enthralling account that takes a critical look at the language used in tabloid newspapers. Exploring national community, celebrity and gender, this book reveals how tabloids have become influential in everyday British life. To request your copy, visit the Arena now.

As usual, if you have any ideas, suggestions or feedback, then please email: <mailto:commarena@tandf.co.uk>.
